

Russian Language Summer School at the Financial University, Moscow 7-28 July 2020

Both the beginners and those who have already started studying the Russian language can make their ambitious dreams come true by immersing in an authentic cultural and linguistic environment of Moscow.

We suggest that you join groups of participants of the Financial University Summer School of the Russian Language.

We can offer you lessons conducted by an instructor, teaching material examination and analysis, meetings and conversations with the native speakers in the summertime. Moreover, you will have an opportunity to see Moscow, join us in the swing of life of one of the world's megalopolises, take a look at the historical monuments, and learn more about the Russian traditions and culture.

The Summer School will work from the 7th of July till the 28st of July 2020 in the Financial University campus in Moscow. You will have an opportunity to combine learning the Russian language with the tours of Moscow during which you could see the key sights of the Russian capital.

The student group composition will depend on the level of proficiency in the language. There will be 7 to 10 people in each group. Upon completing the course, the School students will obtain a relevant certificate issued by the Financial University.

The Summer School offers you the following:

- Preliminary test
- Classes of the Russian language (60 hours) that include reading, writing, speaking, listening practice and phonetics and grammar lessons
- Final test and individual consulting sessions that depend on the test results
- Recommendations for the further independent study of the Russian language
- A short series of lectures on the history and culture of Russia in English (10 hours)
- A cultural programme

The students will study, be accommodated and have their meals at the University campus located on Leningradsky Prospekt, the widest street of Moscow. It is a part of the old road leading from Moscow to the town of Tver and Novgorod. It connected Moscow and St-Petersburg in the middle of XVIII century. The main symbols of Russia, the Red Square, the Kremlin, the Bolshoi Theater, Christ the Savior Cathedral, the Tretyakov Gallery are all easily accessible from the campus. You can use a subway or ground transport to get there.

The cost of participation in the Summer School is about 900 euros. The amount includes:

- The tuition fee;
- The University Student Residence Hall accommodation expenses;
- Meal expenses (breakfast and lunch on weekdays);
- Cultural programme and tour-related expenses;
- Visa support expenses.

The application deadline is April 15, 2020 or April 25, 2020 for the citizens of the European countries.

If you have any questions about application procedure and programme realization, please feel free to call us at: +7 (499) 943-94-21 or contact us: interschools@fa.ru

International Relations Department
Financial University under the Government of the Russian Federation
Leningradsky Prospekt, 49, room 102
125993, Moscow, Russia